

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE

FROM MONASH UNIVERSITY

On behalf of Monash University and our extended community, I wish to extend my congratulations to our long-standing partner, Shandong University on its 120th anniversary in 2021.

Monash University is firmly committed to our partnership with Shandong University. We have a long and successful history of engagement, including our articulation arrangement in the areas of Engineering. We look forward to building on these relationships, in areas of mutual interest over the coming years.

I look forward to witnessing Shandong University achieve many more milestones in its vision to become a world leader in education and research and wish all students and staff every success in the years to come. Our colleagues are looking forward to attending the SDU Partners' Week.

Professor Abid Khan

Deputy Vice-Chancellor and Vice-President (Global Engagement)
