Dear Professor Fan Liming

Please accept my warmest congratulations to you and the staff and students of Shandong University on the celebration of your 120th anniversary.

Shandong University has had a long and distinguished history over this period and has made an immense contribution to the development of China and the world.

The University of Adelaide is proud to be a long-standing partner of Shandong University. Our partnership commenced in 1986 with the sister-state relationship between South Australia and Shandong Province and I am pleased to note the significant collaborative achievements, particularly in the fields of engineering, in this time.

On behalf of the University of Adelaide, I congratulate you for your accomplishments and I wish you all the best for the celebratory event marking this historic milestone.

I look forward to offering my congratulations in person when we next have the opportunity to meet.

Yours sincerely

PROFESSOR PETER HØJ AC FTSE FNAI (US)
Vice-Chancellor and President
