Dear Professor Fan Liming,

Greetings from the University of South Australia and thank you for your letter dated 30 June, 2021.

My sincerest congratulations to Shandong University on reaching the incredible milestone of 120 years. This is indeed a celebration year for your university and I thank you for the opportunity to contribute to the 120th Anniversary Celebration.

I hold the model of multifaceted collaboration between Shandong University and the University of South Australia as an exemplar for our other partnerships to follow. I am extremely pleased by the breadth of cooperation between our two universities, spanning collaborative research, symposiums, undergraduate student exchange, student placements, joint programs and student study tours, with the highlight being our joint research centre; the China-Australia Centre for Health Sciences Research.

We have celebrated great cooperation between staff at our two universities, working tirelessly together to ensure that our collaborative research, our joint programs and student-focussed activities are successful, with quality outcomes for both our staff and students.

In addition, I am pleased that resilient links between our two institutions have contributed to strengthening the long-standing sister-state relationship between the state of South Australia and Shandong Province.

Shandong University is an important partner for the University of South Australia and I thank you for your support. I would like to acknowledge all the dedicated staff at both of our universities who have worked with respect, collaboration and professionalism to further grow our partnership.

Congratulations once more on Shandong University's 120th Anniversary Celebration.

Yours sincerely

Professor Allan Evans
Acting Vice Chancellor and President
