President
Shandong University

LETTER OF CONGRATULATION
From Rennes School of Business, France

Dear President and Dear friends of Shandong University,

On behalf of Rennes School of Business, France, I take great pleasure in congratulating staff, students, and alumni of Shandong University on this upcoming 120th anniversary celebration.

Rennes School of Business France and Shandong University has established cooperation since 2016 to facilitate faculty and students' international mobility and academic exchange between China and France. The friendship between Shandong University and Rennes School of Business is reinforced as Shandong Province is twinned with our region Brittany in France, and Jinan is the sister city of Rennes.

I would like to express my deep appreciation to the President, and the colleagues of Shandong University for their great support on our cooperative programmes and their contribution to internationalisation of higher education. As one of the most international top School of Management in Europe, Rennes School of Business will continue to innovate to provide high-quality cooperative programmes to our partner universities in the world.

We wish you a very successful 120th Anniversary celebration and cheer up for our friendship.

I will be very pleased to welcome you soon in Rennes, France and will have the great pleasure to visit you in Shandong.

Best Regards,

Dr. Thomas FROELICHER

Dean and General Director
