Professor Fan Liming
President
Shandong University

Dear President Fan Liming,

It gives me great pleasure to offer you warmest congratulations on the occasion of Shandong University's 120th Anniversary.

Thank you very much for the giving Durham University the opportunity to share in this important commemorative milestone. My colleagues and I deeply value our friendship and partnership with the Shandong University community, notably the close cooperation of our institutions' faculty and staff on research and the joint programmes in which the two institutions have collaborated.

On behalf of all of us at Durham University, I am delighted to share our very best wishes with Shandong University as you celebrate this wonderful occasion. I look forward to the continued cooperation between our two universities.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Antony Long
Acting Vice-Chancellor
